

LOGAN KIRKSEY

Logan spent almost 30 years “behind the microphone” in radio broadcasting. He has made Panama City & Bay County his home for close to 20 of those years. He met and married his wife Leanne here and they have three great kids, 17 year old Zac, 15 year old Cece and 13 year old Sammi. Logan is very active in his church, St. Andrew Baptist, where he and Leanne lead a small group focusing on marriage enrichment. He has also served as a deacon there since 2005, and has played the disciple Peter in the Panama City Passion Play just about every year since its inception in 2004. Logan has been very active in his local community too using his time and talents to contribute to a great many local charities and non-profit programs and events. In his spare time, he enjoys outings with his family, music, and sports.
