

ZAC FUNARI

Zac joined the Live the Life family in June 2017 and serves as our Founding President Richard Albertson's Executive Assistant. Zac has lived in Tallahassee since July 2013 when his wife, Chelsea, was accepted into graduate school at Florida State University. Zac and Chelsea have been married since December 2014 and have been together since September 2007. Zac graduated from Flagler College with a dual bachelor's degree in Psychology and Sociology and started Seminary at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary in Jacksonville in May 2018. His career goal is to become a military Chaplain. He has a heart for God, a heart to serve, and a passion to help strengthen relationships, marriages and families. He hopes to make God's presence felt wherever he is.
